

Welcome to GoodNews Personnel

Our employment service specializes in placement for professionals in physical, occupational & speech therapy with expertise in permanent & temporary staffing within health care & rehabilitation facilities in New York (primarily in the Hudson Valley), northern New Jersey & Connecticut. Jobs referral and placement are available for new graduates as well as experienced professionals.

Our Company

As one of the regions most trusted and successful employment referral business servicing New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, since 1985, we have been responding to our client requests & applicant needs with empathy & honesty helping professional find ideal jobs & employers staff department with quality professionals.

Our consultants, Ellen Gluck, Paulette Kingsford, and Cheryl Mansueti, believe in the importance of staffing agencies to only referring professionals for positions who are compatible with an employer's specific needs & to only introduce opportunities to our applicants that can satisfy their personal goals & expectations.

Our success in the staffing services industry is attributed to our unique ability to match job requirements with compatible applicant skills, experience & personality.

In addition to retaining our consultants for staff development, because of the current climate within the health care industry we are offering an opportunity for employers & employees to connect directly through our job & applicant posting options with no cost or obligation to our organization.

- Job Consultation
- Career Exploration
- Permanent Placement
- Temporary Placement
- Career Life Skills Coaching

Career and resume consultation as well as referral services are available to professionals interested in career development or change free of charge as a professional courtesy to our therapists Contact Us for more information